Photography By Christmas In Caltagirone Jim Mealey

Lt. Paul Cook joins in for a photograph with his new friends.

As a special treat for the NMCB-62 Seabees, the children of the orphanage presented a round of Christmas carols.

Santa Claus arrives, to the delight of the children and Seabees alike.

(bottom) The rewards of being a Santa Claus are priceless, as Bernie Sears finds out.

(top) Patrick Smith gives a child a better view of things.
What did we get?. a group of Sicilian children wonder.

I declare to you, brothers, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God, nor does the perishable inherit the imperishable. Listen, I tell you a mystery: We will not all sleep, but we will all be changed — in a flash, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet will sound, the dead will be raised imperishable, and we will be changed. For the perishable must clothe itself with the imperishable, and the mortal with immortality. When the perishable has been clothed with the imperishable, and the mortal with immortality, then the saying that is written will come true: "Death has been swallowed up in victory." — 1 Corinthians 15:50-54
